HOTEL
BERGS

At the Hotel Bergs, our goal has always been to offer more than a luxurious place to sleep, more than exceptional business facilities with the latest technology, more than personalized service, more than outstanding food and amenities. Our goal is to provide each guest with a hotel experience unlike any other.

We invite you to explore the Hotel Bergs experience...

slh.com

The spot where the Hotel Bergs now stands was in the mid-nineteenth century a humble cabbage field. With vision far beyond his time, Kristaps Bergs (1843-1907) purchased the field and surrounding properties with the dream of creating a shopping promenade to rival those dominating the city centers of Old Europe. Between 1887 and 1900, he developed the area with pride into the Bergs Bazaar, which was a lively hub of public life with 130 stores, craft studios, houses of worship, and a labyrinth of cobblestone streets and narrow passageways. It is here that the Hotel Bergs now finds its home.

With the return of the property to its heirs after fifty years of Soviet neglect, the descendants of Kristaps Bergs continue to operate the Bergs Bazaar and Hotel Bergs with the same sense of humble pride, while the hotel's logo pays tribute to the vegetable from which it all sprung.

STEEPED IN HISTORY...

Both Latvian history and family history spanning three generations, are an integral part of the Hotel Bergs. From the restored 19th and early 20th century architecture in the Bergs Bazaar, to the collection of family portraits from Latvian masters Janis Rozentals and Janis Tillbergs lining the walls of the lobby and keeping a watchful eye over each floor, guests are invited to experience the past from an updated perspective. Like the old chestnut tree in the courtyard surviving Soviet times and the turbulent restoration years, the Hotel Bergs thrives in contemporary Latvia while remaining deeply rooted in history.

WHERE THE OLD WORLD MEETS
SOPHISTICATED MODERN ELEGANCE...

Unique architectural and design elements seamlessly blend the historical with the modern. An emphasis on natural materials – glass, oak, linen – imbues the space with an innate harmony and stylish grace. Throw in a touch of the exotic! African carved wooden art and antiques hand-chosen in Cape Town by the hotel's owners complete the dramatic effect. These objects, like our guests, have arrived at a long journey's end to find a place quite unlike where they came, but that feels like home.

ABSORB LATVIAN CULTURE IN THE UTMOST COMFORT...

Our rooms, where Italian sofas share space with weathered oak floors and designer light fixtures, will exceed your expectations. Each room is an expansive modern suite with a wet bar – and many include split-levels, fireplaces, and small kitchens – but it is also a cultural experience, with Latvian artistic accents of the highest quality lending local character. Examine the hand-woven Latvian linen curtains and bedspreads crafted by a world renowned textile designer, or admire the original artwork by Ilmars Blumbergs, the famous contemporary Latvian painter. All in an environment infused with comfort and luxury.

ONE CANNOT LIVE ON BREAD ALONE...

And at the Hotel Bergs, why would you? Our restaurant, one of the premier dining destinations in Riga, offers haute cuisine inspired by local Latvian fare, with an emphasis on seasonal ingredients. Enjoy the terrace overlooking the bustling Bergs Bazaar, serenaded by the bronze fountain which takes its inspiration from Riga's first petrol pump that stood in its place in the 1930's. Or dine inside in style beneath a canopy of sculpted cabbage – the perfect homage to our beloved symbol.

WHETHER FOR WORK OR FOR PLAY...

Business meetings, press conferences, cocktail receptions, seated dinners. Whatever your special event needs, it is our pleasure to assist you in planning a memorable event. From the glass hall at the top of the hotel with its breathtaking views of the city, to the state-of-the-art Executive Board Room, to the intimate fireside Library, we accommodate events both large and small.

WHETHER YOU ARE A ROCK STAR,
BUSINESS TYCOON, OR FAMILY OF FOUR...

---

People from many walks of life have called the Hotel Bergs home. But they all have enjoyed the special space, permeated by calm and tranquility, where daily cares seem to slip away. Visit the fitness center for an invigorating work-out followed by a traditional sauna, enjoy a massage, or just relax in your room with our serenity CD – our gift to you – and order a pillow from the pillow menu. Excellent service with a personalized touch. All you have to do is ask.

A COSMOPOLITAN ADVENTURE
JUST FOOTSTEPS
FROM OUR FRONT DOOR...

---

The Bergs Bazaar, the historical pedestrian shopping promenade that plays host to the Hotel Bergs, is one of the most beloved destinations in Riga. Explore small boutiques offering both local and international items, dine at one of the popular restaurants – both casual and up market, or simply stroll about stopping to rest on one of the many benches. Everything your heart could desire: hand-made chocolates, beautiful soaps, stationery, wine, and Latvian-designed furniture. And if you are lucky enough to be in the area for one of our Saturday Green Markets, you are in for a treat! Mix in with locals, diplomats, and out of town guests alike as you sample some of Latvia's best culinary products and arts and crafts.

ALL IN THE CAPITAL OF THE BALTICS – A CITY BURSTING WITH LIFE...

The Hotel Bergs is located in the historical center of Riga, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and a short walk to everything the city has to offer. Pass through the beautiful parks on your way to the Old Town, founded by German crusaders in 1201; examine the stunning art nouveau architecture just blocks away; or hop over to Riga's Central Market, Europe's largest open-air market, bringing back products for our chef to prepare especially for you. An internationally acclaimed opera, countless musical performances, top quality golf courses, and nightlife that might just leave you breathless, Riga has all the trappings of a world capital combined with a unique Baltic flair all its own.

But no matter what you choose to do, the oasis of the Hotel Bergs is always waiting upon your return...

RUMENE MANOR
KANDAVA • LATVIA

HOTEL BERGS INVITES YOU TO EXPLORE THEIR RECENTLY RECONSTRUED COUNTRYSIDE RESIDENCE –
RUMENE MANOR

Rumene Manor 100 km from Riga is the country residence of the 5 star Hotel Bergs, a member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World® and provides a wealth of activities in a haven of luxury for discerning guests from near and far.

Guests at Rumene Manor are invited to “step back in time” into the exclusivity of a private manor house, once owned by Baltic-German nobility, with the relaxed atmosphere of country life in an unspoiled area of Northern Europe.

The manor house itself is a 19th century Neo-Gothic gem, surrounded by a 7 hectare landscaped park nestled at the shore of its own lake.

The award-winning renovation of the manor was completed to the most exacting standards in 2009.

We would be honored to make you an individual offer based on your requests regarding the Manor house as well as the Hotel Bergs in Riga.

IN RUMENE MANOR WE GLADLY OFFER THE PROPERTY FOR THE FOLLOWING VENUES:

---

Celebrations

Executive retreats

Meetings and team building

Wine tasting in distinctive setting

Cooking classes with Restaurant chef Nauris Jakuško
